Property Rates Policy

Effective Date – 1 July 2019
PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, entitles municipalities to impose rates on property in their areas, subject to regulation in terms of national legislation;

AND WHEREAS the Constitution enjoins local government to be developmental in nature, in addressing the service delivery priorities of our country and promoting the economic and financial viability of our municipalities and in general to meet its' obligation in terms of section 152 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996;

AND WHEREAS there is a need to provide local government with access to a sufficient and buoyant source of revenue necessary to fulfil its development responsibilities;

AND WHEREAS income derived from property rate is a critical source of revenue for municipalities to achieve their constitutional objectives, especially in areas that have been neglected in the past due to racially discriminatory, inadequate or inappropriate legislation and regulation;

AND WHEREAS, it is essential that municipalities exercise their power to impose rates within a statutory framework that not only enhances certainty, uniformity and simplicity across the nation, but also accounts for historical imbalances and the rates burden on the poor;

AND WHEREAS the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa confers on Parliament the power to regulate the exercise by municipalities of their fiscal powers;

NOW THEREFORE, the Council of the City of Tshwane Municipality and all its entities adopt the PROPERTY RATES POLICY as set out hereinafter in this document.

SECTION B

5 DETERMINATION OF THE CRITERIA FOR THE LEVYING OF DIFFERENT RATES

5.1 Different categories of rateable properties

5.1.1 Categories of rateable property for the purpose of levying different rates, are determined according to the following criteria:-

(a) Use of the property
(b) Permitted use of the property or
(c) A combination of (a) and (b)

5.1.2 The municipal valuer will be responsible for

(a) the categorising of rateable properties in accordance with this policy, and
(b) the maintenance thereof, provided that any change in the actual use of the property, may in the discretion of the said valuer, be changed to the appropriate category in accordance with the Policy.

5.1.3 Categories of rateable property for purposes of levying differential rates as informed by the criteria are determined as follows:-

(a) residential properties;
(b) business and commercial properties;
(c) educational Institutions;
(d) eco-tourism & game farm
(e) industrial properties;
(f) mining properties;
(g) municipal properties (not used by the Municipality);
(h) State-owned properties;
(i) agricultural properties;
(j) non-permitted use;
(k) vacant land;
(l) Public Benefit Organisation; and
(m) Township Development
5.1.4 Residential Properties

a) In addition to the impermissible rate on the first R15,000 (fifteen thousand) of the market value of specific categories of a property as referred to in paragraph 4(v) above, a further R 135,000 (hundred and thirty-five thousand), reduction on the market value of a property will be applicable;

5.1.5 Properties eligible to Rate Ratios

a) Agricultural Properties

The meaning of the phrase “agricultural property” in terms of interpreting this property category for the purpose of determining the ratios in addition, in terms of the Act is defined as follows:

“property that is used primarily for agricultural purposes but excludes any portion thereof that is used commercially for hospitality of quests, and excludes the use of property for purpose of ecotourism or for the trading in or hunting of game.”

Therefore, any farm property that is used for anything other than agricultural activity, such as for industrial activity, residential purposes, business and commercial activity, trading in or hunting of game or eco-tourism among others is not covered by the ratio for agricultural property. The properties outside the meaning of "agricultural property" defined as outlined above and in the Regulation should be treated according to the municipality’s rates policy as far as it applies to those categories of property (e.g. residential, business, commercial, industrial etc.)

The rate applicable on agricultural property as contained in the definition of farm property, and as prescribed by the Municipal Property Rates Regulations which took effect from 1 July 2009:

The ratio in relation to residential property is:

<tr>
<th>Property Type</th>
<th>Ratio</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Residential property</td>
<td>1:1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Agricultural property</td>
<td>1:0.25</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

b) Properties owned and used by Public Benefit Organisation:

The rate applicable on property registered as Public Benefit Organisation, as prescribed by the Municipal Property Rates Regulations published in Government Notice No. 33016 of 12 March 2010 that took effect on 1 July 2010, may not exceed the ratio to the rate on residential properties where:

The ratio in relation to residential property is:

6 PROPERTY USED FOR MULTIPLE PURPOSE

6.1 A property used for multiple purposes will, for rates purposes, be assigned to a category determined by the municipality for properties used for:

a) a purpose corresponding with the permitted use of the property;

b) a purpose corresponding with the dominant use of the property; or

c) multiple purposes provided for in terms of sections 8 and 9 of the Act, 2004.

6.2 A rate levied on a property assigned in terms of subsection (1)(c) to a category of properties used for multiple purposes will be determined by:

a) apportioning the market value of the property, in a manner as may be prescribed, to the different purposes for which the property is used and in the absence of thereof; in a manner deemed appropriate by the Chief Financial Officer; and

b) applying the rates applicable to the categories determined by the municipalities for properties used for those purposes to the different market value apportionment.

7 LEVYING RATES ON SECTIONAL TITLE SCHEMES

A rate on property which is subject to a sectional title scheme will be levied in accordance with sections 10 and 92 of the Act, 2004, on the individual sectional title units in the scheme and not on the property as a whole.

8 AMOUNT DUE FOR RATES
